

Laksamshu/Tsayu Clans GOVERNANCE MEETING

Saturday, April 5th, 2014
9 A.M. – 5 P.M.
Small Feast Hall - Moricetown Multiplex

Clan members are invited to learn & provide input in the creation of a written Wet'suwet'en Constitution that will help advance self-governance & jurisdiction of the Yintah "traditional lands." The constitution was named A'lh ggah Nu'at'en which means, "Our Laws Gathered Here," and it will include:

- Clan & House Group Systems
- Inuk Nu'at'en "Our Laws"
- Dini ze & Tsakiy ze Authorities
- Bah't'ats Feast Systems & Protocols
- Elected First Nation Systems & Authorities

Discussion will include implementation & hiring process for the new CLAN RUNNER program to support Clan & House determined needs & interests, and OW Governance Team & Natural Resources department requirements.

The presentation will include an overview & discussion regarding:

- a. What is governance?
- b. Why create a constitution?
- c. Methodology to create a constitution
- d. How can I participate?
- e. How will it affect me?

Lunch will be provided
