Travel re-imbusement Information
All Nation Energy Summit 2009

Representatives of First Nations affected by the proposed Enbridge Northern Gateway Pipeline are invited to fill out a registration form for the All Nation Energy Summit, June 6th 2009; doing so enables:

- eligibility to receive a travel honorarium of up to $350 per person.
- Meals and accommodations provided to the participants for the duration of the Summit

Please Note, pending funding availability, the All Nations Energy Summit at this time will commit for 2 representatives from each nation on a first come first serve basis. Should there be additional funding available, we will then communicate this information to all interested participants.

Also, subject to further funding availability, travel costs exceeding $350 may be covered for First Nations travelling longer distances. Early registration is encouraged.

Travel reimbursements forms will be available in the participant packages and will be required to be submitted to the Office of the Wet'suwet'en, Finance Dept. no later than June 19th 2009.

The Office of the Wet'suwet'en Hereditary Chiefs and the All Nations Energy Summit Steering Committee thank you for your interest, hope to see you there!
